

MANTRA

The new portable radiant heater

MANTRA, the new portable radiant heater with a modern design and a full metal housing. MANTRA features the QUICKSUN Radialight heating technology, to create uncomparable comfort similar to sun rays, to heat bodies.

The air doesn't go up like in traditional convector panel heaters and therefore you will experience an immediate cozy feeling.

It is a perfect solution to have a perfect and even temperature all around your room.

In addition, thanks to a pair of feet with castors and a practical handle, you can take MANTRA in any place.

Heating Style

MANTRA's QUICKSUN heating technology quickly generates heat by radiation. Thanks to the performance of the mica heating element, in a few minutes you will feel enveloped in a warm embrace because the heat develops in front of the product and does not rise upwards, as in traditional convectors.

Control System

MANTRA is available in 2 different models:

MANTRA 15 with 1500W heating power and 2 different power settings 750W and 1500W. This model has a vertical shape.
